On July 25, 2001 Emily suddenly stopped breathing while in this trusted babysitter’s care. Chris tried CPR to no avail and Emily was rushed to the hospital where she died two days later. Upon examining Emily, doctors found she had been shaken hard enough to cause a fatal brain injury, and claimed that there were also signs of sexual molestation. Chris was arrested and spent nearly a year in a juvenile facility. At his	5/07/03 9:00pm 60 minutes trial, defense witnesses, including Dr. Joseph Burton and Dr. Kris Sperry, chief medical examiner for the state of Georgia testified that Emily had not been the victim of sexual molestation and that her death was the result of natural causes. The jury found Chris not guilty and the teenager was free to return to a normal life.

48 Hours	“For Love or Money” – Celeste Beard of Austin, Texas claims she is innocent of the murder of her multi-millionaire husband, Steven Beard, co-founder of an Austin television station. After a life of abuse, depression and debt, Celeste, a former waitress married Beard, a man more than twice her age who subsequently adopted her twin daughters. In October, 1999, Beard was fatally shot while lying in bed. Tracey Tarlton, Celeste’s best friend was arrested for the crime and two years later was to stand trial for murder. In a last minute plea bargain Tarlton agreed to testify that Celeste had her kill Beard because he was abusive and controlling. In exchange, her sentence was reduced from life to 20 years. Celeste was arrested for capital murder and at a trial during which her twin daughters testified for the prosecution, was found guilty and given a life sentence.	5/14/03 9:00pm 60 minutes
48 Hours	“The Alibi” – in September 2000, David Camm, a former Indiana State Trooper from New Albany, returned home from a basketball game and claimed that he found his wife Kim and their two children shot dead in the garage. Two days later Camm was arrested for the murders. Eleven witnesses testified that Camm was playing basketball at the time of the murders; however, the examination of microscopic drops of blood found on his t-shirt and basketball shoes gave evidence to his involvement in the murders. A jury, who also suspected Camm of sexually abusing his young daughter, found him guilty of the murders. He was sentenced to 195 years in prison with no chance of parole. In Indiana, an appeal is automatic for a murder conviction.	5/23/03 9:00pm 60 minutes
48 Hours	“Where Is Mrs. March?” – on August 15, 1996, 33 yr. old Janet Levine March, a wife and mother of two young children disappeared. She had a successful career as an artist, a successful husband, Perry, a lawyer, and a beautiful home in Nashville, TN. However, one night, her husband claims that she left home, saying that she needed time alone, and was never heard from again. After Janet’s disappearance, Perry March and Janet’s parents searched for her for two weeks before filing a missing persons report with the police. Investigators found Janet’s car parked a few miles away from her home with her belongings inside. Perry, the only suspect in the case, moved with his children to Ajijic, Mexico where he remarried and began a new life. Janet’s parents are convinced that Perry killed their daughter but, with no hard evidence that a crime was committed it is unlikely that Perry March will be brought back from Mexico to face trial.	5/28/03 9:00pm 60 minutes
48 Hours	“Burden Of Proof” – following the disappearance, on Jan. 18, 1997, of 33 year old Beverly Watson of Fayetteville, GA, her husband, Jim, became a prime suspect in the case. Watson, who was raising the couple’s two children, insisted that he was innocent. Police who searched the Watson home found no evidence but noticed that Jim was wearing makeup to	5/30/03 9:00pm 60 minutes conceal what appeared to be fingernail scratches on his face. A little more than two years after Beverly disappeared, 12 of her bones, including her skull were found about 20 miles from the Watson home. Despite the fact that the cause of death was ruled undetermined by the medical examiner, the prosecutor, Sheila Ross, got an indictment from a grand jury and brought Jim Watson to trial for the murder. A jury found him guilty and he was sentenced to life in prison. The Watson children, Ashley, 18 and Todd, 12 stand by their father who is seeking a new trial.

60 Minutes II	“Too Close To The Fire” – a report on firefighters, the majority of them volunteers, who are guilty of arson. Includes interviews with Douglas Ford, an Ohio volunteer firefighter who set the blaze that destroyed his own firehouse; Joseph Wambaugh, author of “Fire Lover”; Tom Aurnhammer, fire chief in Farmington, New Mexico; and Ken Cabe, South Carolina State Forestry Commission.	6/04/03 9:00pm 20 minutes
48 Hours	“The Canal Street Brothel” – focuses on three generations of women from the same family who all worked in the New Orleans-based Canal Street Brothel – Tommie Taylor, the grandmother who worked the phones; her daughter, Jeanette Maier, the madam; and the granddaughter, Monica Montemayor, the working girl. The FBI, suspecting that the brother, part of a nationwide ring, had organized crime connections, shut it down in 2002 after recording 5,000 calls during an investigation involving 10 FBI agents in the days before, during and after 9/11. No evidence of a criminal connection was found, but more than a dozen women were arrested including the three women who ran the Canal Street Brothel. None of the “johns” who patronized the brothel were exposed or arrested. Moncia Montemayor, managed to stay out of jail but is fighting to regain custody of her young daughter.	6/04/03 10:00pm 60 minutes
48 Hours	“While Innocents Slept” – a report based on the book While Innocents Slept by Adrian Havill which follows a murder case involving the deaths of two infants which were originally attributed to SIDS (Sudden Infant Death Syndrome). A new investigation instigated by Missy Anastasi, mother of one of the infants, unearthed new evidence which pointed to her ex-husband, Garrett Wilson, a successful salesman of musical instruments and four times married father of both infants. Wilson, who had taken out life insurance policies on both babies, was tried for the 1987 murder of his son, Garrett Michael, found guilty and sentenced to prison. A trial for the 1981 death of an infant daughter, Brandi Jean, has been postponed.	6/06/03 9:00pm 60 minutes
48 Hours	“Invitation To A Murder” – Police called Mark Winger a hero on Aug. 29, 1995 when he seemingly tried to save his wife, Donnah, from being bludgeoned to death in their home by Roger Harrington, a man with a history of mental illness, whom Winger shot and killed. Four years later, DeAnn Schultz, Donnah’s best friend, revealed to police that she and Mark Winger had been having an affair and that he had talked about killing his wife. Polaroid pictures revealing the position of the victims’ bodies at the scene of the killings showed that Winger’s account of the events lacked credibility. Seven	6/13/03 9:00pm 60 minutes years after the deaths of Donnah Winger and Rober Harrington, Mark Winger was tried and found guilty of murder. He was sentenced to life in prison.

48 Hours	“Andrew Luster: Caught” – an interview with 39 yr. old Max Factor heir Andrew Luster before he became a fugitive from justice during his recent trial on 87 counts ranging from poisoning to sexual battery to the drug-induced rape of three women. Includes videotaped evidence of his crimes recorded by Luster himself and interviews with two of his victims. Luster was sentenced in absentia on Feb. 18 to 124 years in prison. He had 60 days to appeal his conviction, but to do so, would have necessitated his returning to California. On June 18, 2003 Mexican police arrested Andrew Luster along with several bounty hunters attempting to capture him in the Mexican resort city of Puerto Vallarta. Luster, who is due back in the U.S., according to the FBI, has been on the run since fleeing his trial in January.	6/18/03 9:00pm 60 minutes
48 Hours	“Witness” – Charles Forshee, a 56 yr. old foster father in Houston, Texas was charged with the asphyxiation-murder on June 21, 2001 of Dillon Ferrar, a child in his care. Dillon’s four yr. old brother Lucas, a key witness at the murder trial testified that he saw Forshee put a pillow on Dillon’s face. Dfense attorney Stanley Schneider attacked Lucas’ reliability as a witness and argued that Lucas, known to be overly aggressive, might have been responsible for his brother’s death. A jury found Charles Forshee not guilty.
